

Terms and conditions for the use of this web site

General Disclaimer

This website has been compiled in good faith by the BCA'37 UK for educational purposes and to provide information about the charity and the services that it offers. The information contained on the website is provided on an "as is" basis and the BCA'37 UK disclaims responsibility for the completeness or accuracy of the information, text, links or any of the components of the website. Any articles or report received for publication on our web site remains copyright of the author.

Links to Third Party Web Sites

This website contains hyperlinks to websites operated by other parties. The linked websites are not under the control of the BCA'37 UK and the charity takes no responsibility for their content.

Limitation of Liability

The BCA'37 UK will under no circumstance be liable for any damages related to your use of the website.

Web images

Most of the images on our website are stored at "web resolution" (i.e., a few hundred pixels width and height) and are often further reduced to incorporate them within the main web site text. For some images right-clicking can be used to view them at the best resolution we have.

Some of our images are derived from originals (i.e., contemporary photographs taken on behalf of the BCA'37UK) with the highest resolution (i.e., several thousand pixels width and height). Due to complexity of possible copyright issues we are unable to share these highest resolution images on our web site or otherwise send them to third parties, unless clear legal copyright is available to us (i.e., contemporary photographs taken on behalf of the BCA'37UK), or the original copyright holder has given us written permission to send them to you.

We are not responsible for any copyright infringement resulting from the use of images taken from our website.

Please contact us at management@basquechildren.org if you believe you are the owner of the copyright or any other related rights in material found on this website, or in a publication or broadcast to which the BCA'37 UK has provided material from its collections. We will withdraw the material from our website upon our initial verification of your written objection or complaint while the matter is further investigated. Your objection will be acknowledged as soon as possible after receipt.
